NEWSLETTER

Thank you for your support for World Book Day – the children and staff all had a fantastic time dressing up as their favourite characters and spending the day enjoying books. Your child should have received a voucher which can be used towards buying a book in most large super-markets.

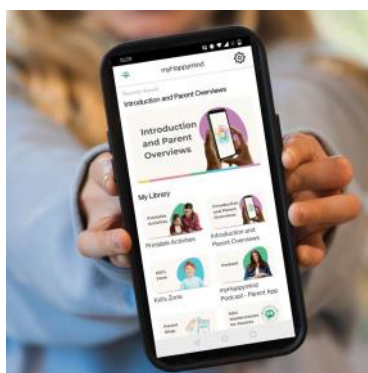

Year 3 visited The British Museum this week and had the experience of seeing a range of historical artefacts to support them in their understanding of the history topics they have learnt about, including Ancient Egypt and the Stone Age, Bronze Age and Iron Age.

Please remember the rules at school around uniform and suitable snacks for children. We allow fruits and vegetables at snack time, and water to drink. Our uniform policy can be found here: <https://www.beaversprimaryschool.co.uk/site/data/files/documents/847EED512B38C394FFAAD4A0FBA65BFA.pdf>, and does not allow jewellery to be worn.

Ramadan is due to begin very soon; Ramadan Mubarak to all those who observe.

This weekend is also Mother's Day; I hope that all mothers, grandmothers, aunts and all caregivers have a lovely day.

Next Friday is Red Nose Day for Comic Relief, so we are asking children to come dressed in red and bring a £1 donation. We hope it will be a very fun day!

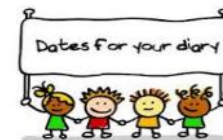

Parents are invited to a myHappyMind workshop on 22nd March
EYFS and KS1 in the Infant Hall (accessed from the Infant Playground) at 9:00am
KS2 in the Junior Hall (accessed from the Junior Playground) at 2:45pm

World Book Day
2024

World Book Day by Sanvi

Books are a passport to all doors
Doors to adventures
Adventures, imagination

The room we sit in dissolves
As we find the words that are thieves
Thieves of reality

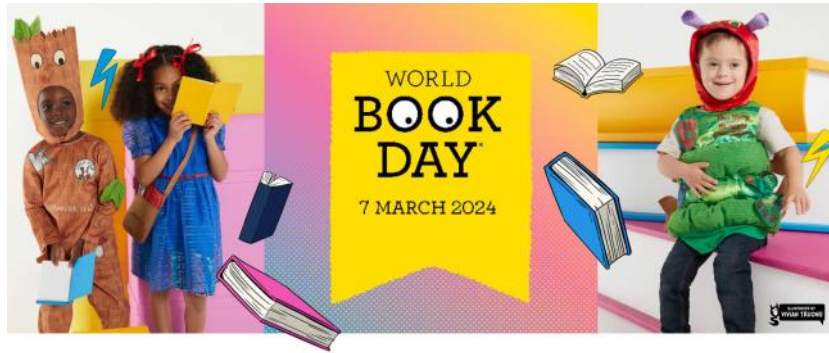

As we sail along the sentence
We disappear into another world;
Glee unlocks...

A Very Merry Book Day by Chris

I wake up this morning to
An amazing breakfast of Green eggs and ham as I look at my day-to-view plan

I go out to school
The ground rumbles as I see
The very merry iron giant
"Who was full of glee,"

I get into my school
To see something
That lets my breath free
As a I see
A fox with breath
As hard as bricks
And three little pigs
With brains as big as a fig
I get into my class
As I go to sharpen my pencil
I see Pinocchio's nose
In the sharpener
As it grows long, long and longer.

What happens when we turn a page by Delvin

Turn a page, you are in a world full of words

Turn a page, you are in a void full of victory

Turn a page, you are in a star full of sloppiness

Turn a page, you are in a planet full of punctuating punctuation

Turn a page, you are in a terrain full of titles

Turn a page, you are in a sun full of shimmering words

Turn a page, you are in a new world of mysterious poems

Our Eco Warriors have been hard at work this week; they enjoyed weeding the flower beds and planting potatoes. Well done Eco Warriors, we look forward to seeing and tasting what they can cook with them!

Sunshine Class celebrated World Book Day as Hungry Caterpillars!

For World Book Day this week Year 6 have been reading with Year 2. Other year groups have enjoyed sharing books with each other.

On Wednesday, Year 3 went on a trip to the British Museum to look at all the Ancient Egyptian artefacts on display and got to see real mummies! They travelled into central London by tube and had a wonderful time.
